Open access funding and payment

Open access

Scientific Reports is an open access journal, and all articles are free to access, download, share, and re-use.

Open access maximises the dissemination and discovery of your research, increasing citation and usage, and improving collaboration and interdisciplinary interaction. By making your work available to more people, we help it create greater, faster impact, enabling you and the wider scientific community to advance science.

For further information about Nature Research's open access policies and publishing options, please visit our open research site.

Payment

To publish in Scientific Reports, you must pay an article processing charge (APC) at the following rate, plus VAT or local taxes where applicable:

£1,390 (UK)

$1,870 (The Americas, China and Japan)

€1,570 (Europe and rest of the world)
